Welcome back!

We hope our families had a wonderful Summer break. Everyone at school is looking forward to another amazing year at Kirkhamgate.

The children have come back to school with amazing attitudes which we hope will continue all year. We have got some fabulous events planned for the year.

All the class twitter feeds are now up and running and the teachers love to share the learning with you. Please send in your reply slips if you haven't already done so to allow the teachers to tweet your children. If you want to follow the class page, you need to send your slip back into school with your username on so that the class teacher can then accept the request.

A big well done to everyone who made scarecrows and came to the event. The village was extremely busy and it was lovely to see such community spirit.
£304 was raised on Sunday for the school fund.

As part of our ongoing effort to keep our children safe, we have been working with the NSPCC. Below is their PANTS rule, which has been shared with the children through the Pantosaurus song. The NSPCC website has a range of resources to help parents talk to children about keeping themselves safe.
